Romanza is semi aniline, hand antiqued leather which provides any piece with a sophisticated yet oh so comfortable look. Romanza has been hand stained with a combination of subtle oils and waxes, followed by a protective topcoat to give it excellent wear ability. It is then hot ironed to give it an added finish and a see through look reminiscent of the old English Bridle leathers. Once upholstered, the beauty and workmanship of this leather is amplified and brought to life.
